

Do Something for Someone Else

Written by Loll Kirby and illustrated by Yas Imamura, Do Something for Someone Else is about exploring real-life stories of children spreading kindness through their everyday actions.

Meet kids whose small acts of kindness are changing the lives of others. Learn about the work they do and discover how the future of our world starts here... with you.

Curriculum Links: HASS, Literacy, Visual Arts, Sustainability
Age Range: Years 3-6

ACTIVITY: PICTURE CHANGE

This activity invites students to consider how small positive actions in their school or community can have a huge impact on others.

Wondering

Read the opening page of the book introducing the 12 children. Invite students to pick one child's story which they would like to explore further.

Exploring

Read the text with students and follow up by inviting them to share their wonderings. Take the time to look at the detail in the illustration. Together explore their wonderings, perhaps they can add new ideas of ways to help.

Connecting

Invite students to share a way they could help those around them. Use the question stem, 'We're helping our class, school or community by...' In groups of three students write out their statement, draw a setting and add in specific ways they can help others.

