

Civic engagement with
Kate and Jol Temple

Explore Kate and Jol's fantastic website to uncover all the details about these great authors and explore their diverse collection of book titles.

Watch this short trailer for the book G.O.A.T with students. As the G.O.A.T class, create a collaborative welcome display to share with parents and other visitors to the classroom.

Bush Turkey is a fantastic hook into discussing and co-creating learning spaces with students. Utilise this Civics in Pictures resource to support.

Based on G.O.A.T, create a beautiful classroom display of acrostic poems celebrating what is unique and special about each student.

Using this prompt, zoom out and encourage students to think about issues which arise on the playground. Engage in positive discuss about what students can do and build on the illustration.

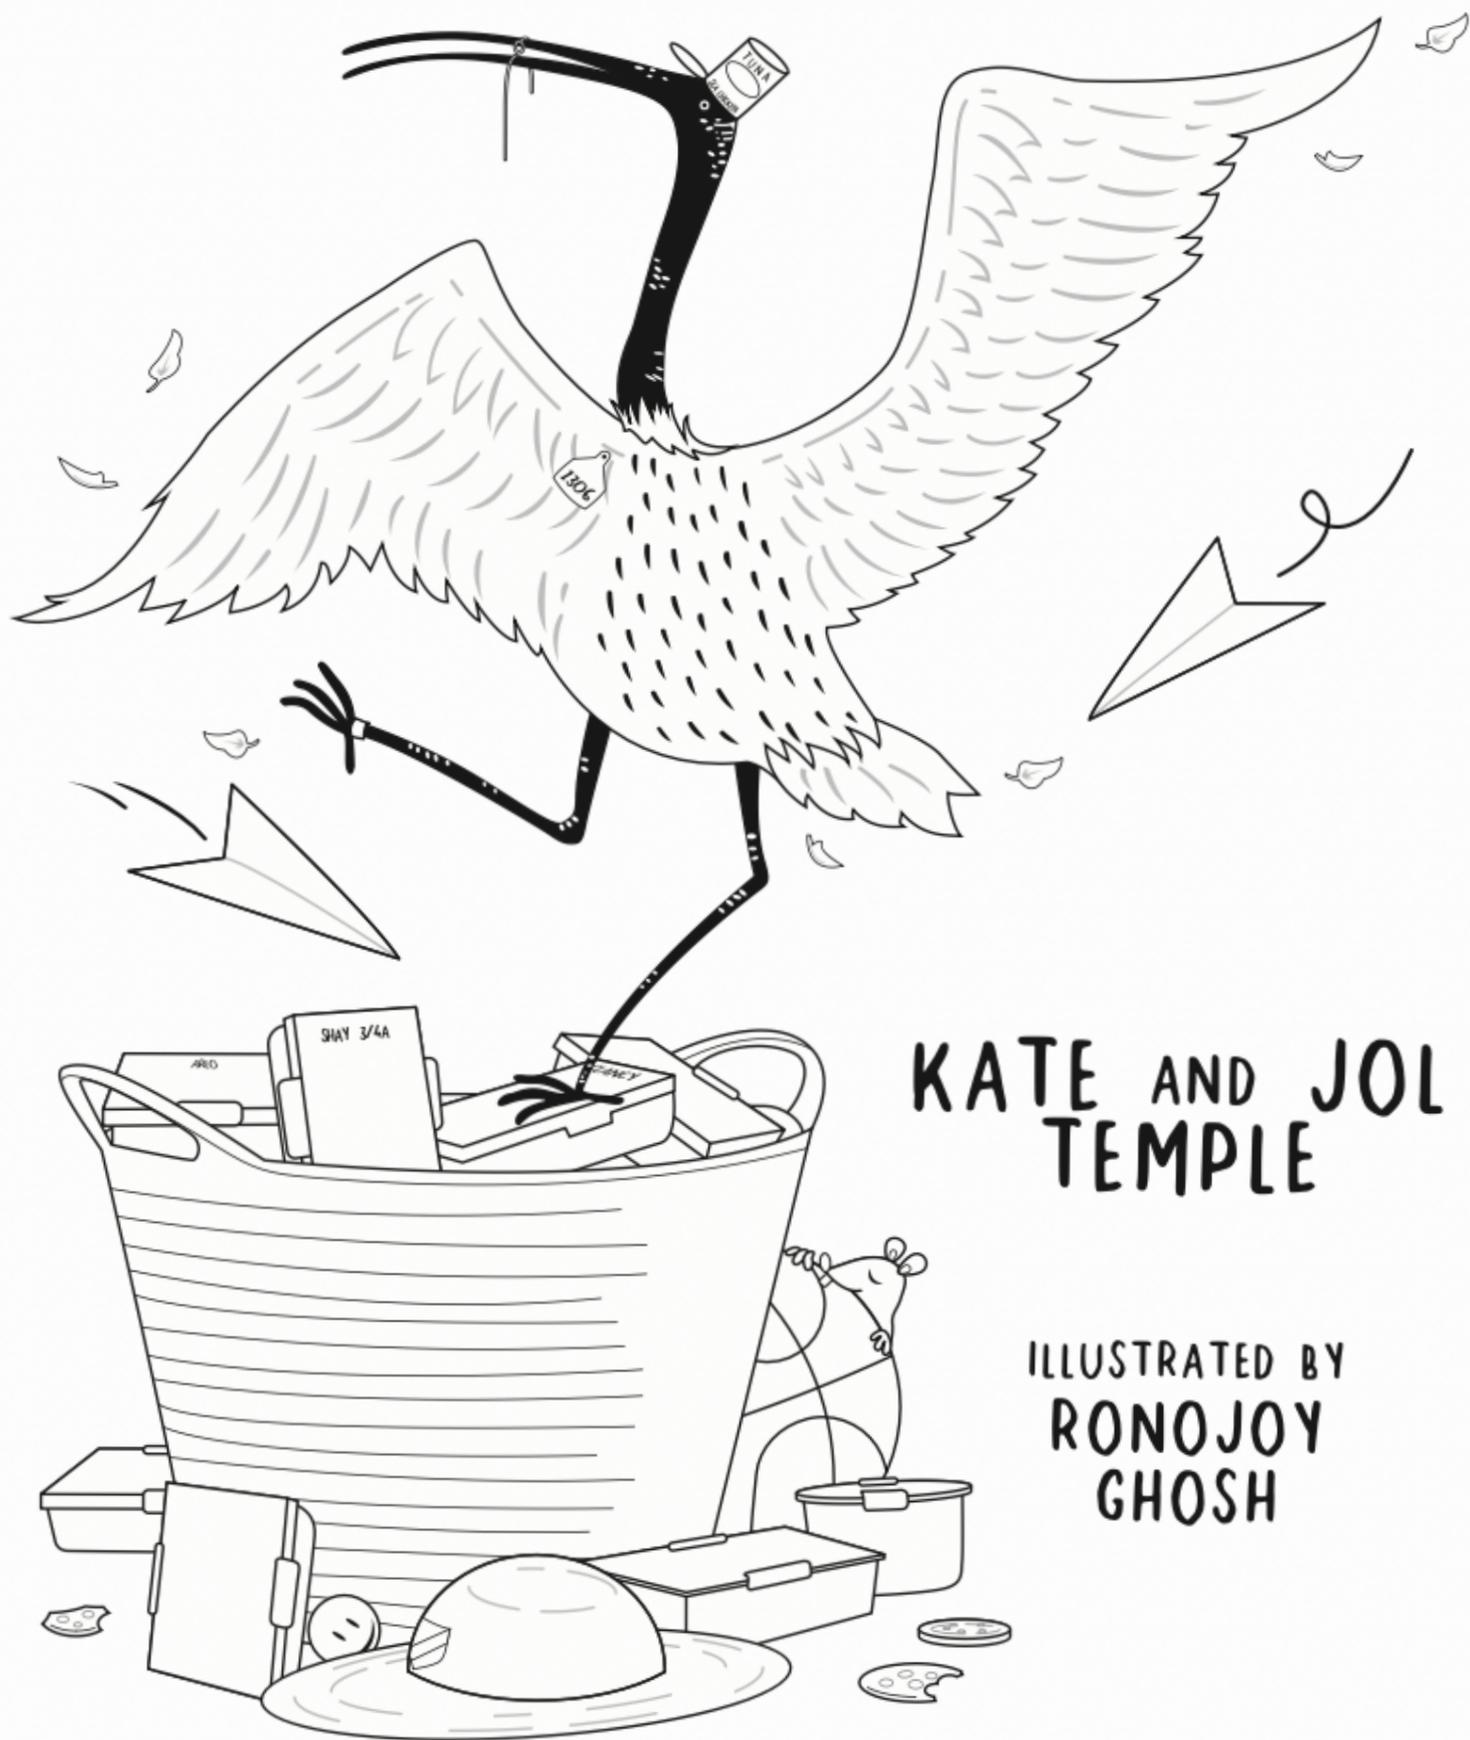

Move that Mountain encourages all of us to have a growth mindset. Share with students these vibrant positive affirmation cards to support their thinking.

Read Kate and Jol's outstanding book Room on our Rock. Help students see the importance of perspective with this Civics in Pictures activity.

Read one of Kate and Jol's picture books in the Bin Chicken series. Invite students to turn the book into a news article reporting the adventures of Bin Chicken.

BIN CHICKEN

KATE AND JOL
TEMPLE

ILLUSTRATED BY RONOJOY
GHOSH